- 15 rounds of golf (Monday to Friday)
- Participation in Wednesday medals and competitions (excluding the Club Championship and the Knock-out competitions)
- An SGU recognised handicap
- Members' discounts on food and drink
- Reduced fees for guests
- Access to reciprocal golf arrangements with other clubs
- Use of extensive practice area
- Access to Professional for lessons, advice and equipment

In addition, you may:

- top up your number of rounds @ £75 for 5 additional rounds
- play on Sundays and on "non-medal" Saturdays for an additional charge of £5.00
- play in Saturday medals or competitions after 2.00 pm for an additional charge of £10
- enter the Club's Open competitions

If you wish to up-grade your flexible membership to full or five day membership, you will receive credit for any unused rounds on your card @ £16.00 per unused round.

Note on handicaps

The main benefits of obtaining a handicap are that you can enter (and of course win) club competitions and medals and you can take part in other club's Open Competitions, which are usually extremely good value compared with buying a one-off round. You can obtain details of how to get a handicap from the Professional or the Match Secretary
